

Apostille and consular legalization this is a stamp confirming the legal force of a document issued in one country for actions on the territory of another country. Apostille is required when documents need to be provided to government agencies of the countries included in the Hague Convention. The procedure of apostille of documents includes translation and apostille documents in the Ministry of Justice of the Russian Federation. In the case where the need of consular legalization document is issued by the Ministry of Justice the Ministry of foreign Affairs and the Consulate of the country requiring legalisation. Linguists still argue on what the letter is about, or is stressed in the word apostille. Studio translation GAT will help You in getting the apostille and apostille. Detailed information about the documents to be apostille or consular legalization the cost and turnaround time You can learn at +7 499 618-09-48 or writing to us at

Link to article:: Apostille and consular legalization