+7 843 214-75-00 Kazan Marx 72 offices 42 Legalization of a document is a specific bureaucratic procedure whose aim is the validation of the document issued by the authorities of one state legal force on the territory of another country. One of the types of legalization is the translation of documents with apostille. Statement of apostille or apostille is a simplified legalization in contrast to the consular legalization. Documents with apostille accept the official authorities of the countries acceding to the 1961 Hague Convention including Russia. If the country of submission of the documents has not signed the Convention will require a full consular legalization. Apostille stamp authorised body in Kazan is a branch of the Ministry of justice, Ministry of internal Affairs Ministry of foreign Affairs of the Ministry of education such as the translation of the diploma and the Registrar's office. The procedure takes 2-3 working days. Before submitting documents for apostille, you must perform a notarized translation of the documents to make sure there are not any kind of inaccuracies, typos, etc. as to make corrections to previously apostilled is not allowed will have to repeat the whole procedure again and pay the duty. Not all documents can be legalized through the translation with apostille. Not Apostolorum contracts bills bills of lading invoices and other commercial documents. Their certification is conducted through the offices of the chamber of Commerce of the consular Department of the Russian foreign Ministry and the Consulate of the country of filing. The documents have undergone the consular legalization will be valid only in the country, the Consulate which assured document whereas apostilled documents are valid on the territory of all signatory countries of the Hague Convention.
